Chris also reported applications for Forest Health, RCPP and large contracts are being reassessed.

BUSINESS

New Business:

a) Covid-19 Response
Sarah Jones reported that granting agencies and partners are indicating that funding is secure for current contracts and agreements, even with the State budget changes. Placer County just entered phase two of reopening. Sarah recommends reopening the District’s office starting June 1st. Sarah provided a document outlining COVID-19 reopening protocols. The Board supported the plan and office reopening timeline.

b) Document Management Project
Moondance Foxmarnick, a document management specialist hired through a temp agency, explained some findings and things to consider for future document management policy. An attachment was provided in the Board packet. Moondance will provide an example to the Board at the June Board meeting.

c) Injury and Illness Prevention Program (IIPP)
Sarah Jones explained the IIPP is required by Cal OSHA. The IIPP and the Code of Safe Practices will need to be in place when the Chipper Program Supervisors are hired. Mica Heilmann moved to adopt the IIPP and Code of Safe Practices. Steve Jones seconded, and the motion passed unanimously.
(Roll Call: Patti Beard, Claudia Smith, Christine Johnson, Steve Jones, and Mica Heilmann)

d) GASB 75 Report
Claudia Smith read the recommendation of the GASB 75. Steve Jones moved to adopt the GASB 75 report. Christine Johnson seconded, and the motion passed unanimously. (Roll Call: Patti Beard, Claudia Smith, Christine Johnson, Steve Jones, and Mica Heilmann)

e) Auditing Services – Request for Proposal (RFP)
Sarah Jones announced she has put together a Request for Proposal for Auditing services. The District will do a public post in the local newspaper. The Board will allow Sarah to move forward with the RFP process.

Old Business:

f) Staff Reports
Maddison Easley reported she is still doing site visits with landowners and to the Auburn Shaded Fuel Break project. Maddison also announced she completed the Coordinated Watershed project. Both invoice and final report were submitted to CAL FIRE.
Kate Espinola reported she is still processing vendor invoices on a normal schedule.
